It is with honor and respect that we offer this memoriam for our classmates.

It is the memories, which in many cases go back to our days in elementary school that we join with the families of our friends in paying respect to their lives and how they have touched all of us.

And to those who have passed away without our knowledge

To our classmates who are not able to celebrate with us today, we believe they are here in spirit as they live on in our thoughts and hearts, today and everyday.

Still Missing You

They say there is a reason
They say that time will heal
But neither time nor reason Will change the way we feel.

For no one knows the heartache that lies behind our smiles, No one knows how many times we have broken down and cried

Still missing you

We want to tell you something so there won't be any doubt, You're so wonderful to think of but so hard to be without.

We cannot bring the old days back, when we were all together
The family chain is broken now, but memories live forever.

Still missing you

It is with thanks and appreciation that I share my thoughts with you.

Warm greetings to all of you,

Terry and Pam Krivak graciously invited me to join you today but writing a letter seemed a better option. Let me assure you that both Dick and I are with you in spirit, at this event, which he eagerly anticipated! Your kind words in remembrance of him, in cards and also your web site, were appreciated by our children and me and a huge thank you goes to Russ Greata who effectively captured Dick's character and lifestyle in his eulogy. My youngest son exclaimed, "He nailed it!" and indeed you did, Russ! Thank you.

Dick fought like the warrior that he was, to conquer the superbug and sepsis, several times over, during the 2 1/2 months he was at the Cleveland Clinic. We both thought he would come home and believed the whole time that he would recover. The professionals at the Cleveland Clinic were amazed at his sheer strength and determination. There were multiple setbacks, but, many times over, I heard the words, "-----most people wouldn't have made it this far". They were actually shocked at his age!

He was discharged in late April to a step down facility where rehab and continuing care would have insured a full recovery. In the last 24 hours, however, another sudden, debilitating and acute infection simply attacked his body and he did not have the resources to fight another round. We are still grieving his loss.

On the day he was informed that surgery was necessary, one of our sons asked Dick if he was concerned. I must share with you the answer he gave. He said, "Nathan, I am a child of God. I will be on this earth not one day less or one day longer than He has planned". Dick walked closely with his Lord and I would be remiss, on Dick's behalf, if I did not include one reference of evidence for his statement, which we both so completely embraced. Job 14:5 states "Man's days are determined; you have decreed the number of his months and have set limits he cannot exceed."

Thanks to all of you for offering kind accolades to Dick (and me!) over the years and appreciating his efforts in administering the class of '61 reunions. I salute and appreciate Terry K. Terry D, Russ G., and the rest of today's committee for picking up the baton and carrying forward the traditions that Dick enjoyed.

Enjoy your time today and again, my thanks for your support and encouragement.

With sincere regards,

Ruth Partington
